

St Fabian Students Score Above Grade Level According to IOWA Testing Scores

St. Fabian Students Scores for Grade 3 showed:

- At or above national average percentile in 2017 for reading, written expression, conventions of writing, vocabulary, word analysis, mathematics, computation, social studies, and science.
 - More than 60 percent of the national average in 2017 for written expression and computation.
 - Grade equivalent greater than 3rd grade level consecutively for five years in the following categories; reading, written expression, conventions of writing, vocabulary, word analysis, social studies, and science.
-
- Overall complete composite above national average consecutively for five years.
 - Overall complete composite greater than 3rd grade level consecutively for five years.

St. Fabian Students Scores for Grade 5 showed:

- At or above national average percentile in 2017 for reading, written expression, conventions of writing, vocabulary and social studies.
 - More than 60 percent of the national average in 2017 for conventions of writing, and vocabulary.
 - Grade equivalent greater than 5th grade level consecutively for five years in the following categories; reading, written expression, conventions of writing, vocabulary, and social studies.
-
- Overall complete composite greater than 5th grade level consecutively for five years.

St. Fabian Students Scores for Grade 7 showed:

- At or above national average percentile in 2017 for reading, written expression, conventions of writing, vocabulary, computation, social studies, and science.
 - More than 60 percent of the national average in 2017 for written expression, conventions of writing, vocabulary, and computation.
 - Grade equivalent greater than 7th grade level consecutively for five years in the following categories; written expression, conventions of writing, vocabulary, computation, social studies, and science.
-
- Overall complete composite above national average consecutively for five years.
 - Overall complete composite greater than 7th grade level consecutively for five years.

St. Fabian Students Scores for Grade 8 showed:

- Above 8th grade level in written expression, conventions of writing, vocabulary, mathematics, computation, social studies, and science.
 - At or above 9th grade level in written expression, conventions of writing, vocabulary, and social studies.
-
- Overall complete composite above national average.
 - Overall complete composite greater than 8th grade level.